Please, do not tape directly on the original packaging of the product (e.g. cardboard). After peeling off the tape there are visible traces of damage which qualify the product as with the traces of use. For this reason, the seller loses possibility of further resale of the product as a new one. According to Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council 2011/83 / EU of 25 October 2011. on consumer rights, the consumer is responsible for lowering the price and quality of the product - in this case destroying the cardboard which is an indispensible part of the product.
